

THE LEAGUE
OF WOMEN VOTERS
OF THE LANSING AREA

&

WILLIAMSTON ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS
PARENT TEACHER STUDENT ASSOCIATION

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WILLIAMSTON, Michigan –The League of Women Voters of the Lansing Area and the Williamston Elementary Schools Parent Teacher Student Association have invited all 12 candidates for various positions on the Williamston Community Schools Board of Education to speak at a free public forum Thursday, October 25, beginning at 6:30 PM in Discovery Elementary, 350 Highland, in Williamston.

Each candidate will have the opportunity to make a brief opening statement, then respond to questions from the audience.

For additional information about this election, read a Lansing Area LWW Voter Guide for Ingham County, distributed to the Williamston Library, City Hall, and Senior Center.

Find more non-partisan election information about Michigan candidates and ballot proposals at www.Vote411.org

For information about this event, contact Beth Moore at mooreeee@msu.edu

This forum is sponsored by the non-partisan League of Women Voters of the Lansing Area, giving residents an opportunity to hear candidates answer questions from the audience.